

Lybertee Park

2050 W. Blanco

Lybertee Park is 150 acres of undeveloped land and is located off West Blanco Blvd. at Bergin Lane. It consists of bike and hiking trails. The park has a picnic area with two concrete tables and a fireplace. It also has vault style restrooms. At the very top of the park is a shelter that overlooks the beautiful City of Bloomfield. Lybertee Park is extensively used by ATV and off road recreational vehicles. There are also pristine areas that include cedars, sages and an abundance of spring wildflowers.
