

City Attorney

Responsibilities

The City Attorney serves as legal counsel providing legal advice for the:

- Mayor
- City Council
- City Manager
- All departments of the City of Bloomfield

The City Attorney also serves as the prosecutor for the City in cases before the Bloomfield Municipal Court and New Mexico District Court.

Prohibited

The City Attorney is not allowed to give legal advice to any private citizen. If you are seeking information about your rights and responsibilities under the provisions of the City of Bloomfield Municipal Code, you should contact an attorney in private practice.
