

More about the Seniors

The Bloomfield Seniors non-profit organization strives to contribute to their community through various youth work programs, service learning, volunteerism and educational scholarships. The organization conducts fundraising throughout the year to contribute to these and many other aspects of community involvement that promote senior living and the betterment of the community around us.

The Bloomfield Seniors promote sustainability, education, active aging, community involvement, and volunteerism throughout all aspects of the organization while encouraging these qualities in others.

Supporting Documents

Planting the Raised Garden Beds 105.16
KB

View Slideshow